Random Nun Clip

In this Random Nun Clip, Sister Maxine talks with St. Joseph Sr. Kathy Sherman, who wrote her first song at age 14 and has grown up to become a prolific songwriter and performer whose music is heard in many liturgical and justice advocacy settings.

"The gift of music has allowed me to be with people at the most profound and significant moments of their lives," she says. "I don't take that for granted and I don't take that lightly."
